Please make an appointment via telephone or e-mail with us. We advise you in person, via e-mail, phone or videocall.

You ...

- ... have successfully completed your studies or vocational training abroad?
- ... need support with the recognition of your foreign qualification?
- ... are seeking a refresher training?
- ... have already submitted your application for credential recognition and want to know what is next?
- ... want to know how you can compensate substantial differences?

We...

... advise you on the recognition process and explain the recognition procedure.

... look into financing options.

... support you with application submission for credential recognition and throughout the entire recognition process.

... explain the recognition notice.

... help you find a suitable qualification training.

You would like to be advised in another language or bring a translator with you?

No problem. Advice is also available in other languages. Please do not hesitate to ask us about it.

Our counselling ...

... is free of charge, individual and confidential.

... can be held via e-mail, phone, videocall (MS Teams) or in person.

... is available in English and German.

Please bring the following documents to your appointment (if available):

- your original credentials and German translations
- your overview of subjects and grades
- job references
- proof of further training
- CV/resume
- ID card/passport

We advise you free of charge and individually. Feel free to contact us.
